

I strictly forbid the sticking of candles against the beams, the sides or any other part of the ship. Officers are not to read in bed by the light of either lamps or candles, or to leave any light in their cabin unattended.

Navy Regulations

Activities

Give instructions to improve safety aboard ship.

A Cartoon showing a sailor praying before a battle

National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, London