

At 10.00 o' clock Thomson's arms were tied and the ship's crew formed a lane. Every man had a length of knotted cord. The thief had to run between the lanes of men, every man striking him as he passed. After passing one round he fainted and dropped down.

Aaron Thomas

He quarrelled with another seaman and drawing a long knife attempted to stab him. He was sentenced to receive one hundred and fifty lashes and was sent around all the ships in the fleet so they could witness his punishment.

Edward Mangin

He had spread mutiny amongst the crew and was condemned to the worst punishment. When his time came the yellow flag was run up and a gun was fired. The unhappy man is run up [hung] in the smoke from the cannon by his fellow crew mates. When the cloud from the cannon clears away, you see the man hanging lifeless.

George Watson

Activities

What punishment do these sailors deserve?

David Mellos
sails

Drunk while working the top-

Thomas Ewing

Stole a knife from one of the crew

Samuel Edging

Said that they must put their complaints to the captain about poor food and hard discipline

Paul Torrent

Deserted when the ship was about to sail against the French

Tom Gallant

Fighting with one of the crew

Abe Dalton

Struck an officer